Registration: Online registration is available via AIG FL Chapter website. Please direct any questions about registration or the training session to training coordinator Charles McCool at charles.mccool@dot.state.fl.us or at 850-410-5828. Registration is capped at 100 participants and preference will be given to current IG team members.

Payment Options: There is no registration fee for members. Non-members have two options:

(1) You may join the Association at the Chapter membership rate of $35 and pay the membership fee online via credit card/PayPal. Your registration fee for training will then be waived. Please bring your online receipt with you at check-in.

(2) You may pay for this training by mailing a check to: Florida Chapter of the Association of Inspectors General, P.O. Box 14292, Tallahassee, FL 32317. If your organization wants to purchase training for several staff members, they can send a check to the same address with a list of attendees for which the payment covers. Checks payable to the Florida Chapter of the Association of Inspectors General will be the only way to pay for this as training (unless you choose option 1 above and become a Chapter member). We are unable to accept a credit card (including P-Card) or purchase order. If either an individual or an agency pays by check, please list each attendee's name, agency, position title, email address and mailing address. Individuals who purchase training (or for whom training is purchased) will become Chapter members for one year at no additional cost.

CPE: 17.0 Hours CPE will be earned at the completion of the entire training seminar.
