The Florida Department of Transportation Office of Inspector General is seeking Reaccreditation

The Florida Department of Transportation, Office of Inspector General-Investigations Section, will be undergoing a reassessment by the Commission for Florida Law Enforcement Accreditation in an effort to retain accredited status. On December 5, 2018, the Florida Department of Transportation, Office of Inspector General-Investigations Section will be reassessed for compliance on policies and procedures, management, operations, and practices. The Florida Department of Transportation Office of Inspector General-Investigations Section must comply with 40 mandatory standards in order to retain accredited status. A copy of the accreditation standards is available through the Commission for Florida Law Enforcement Accreditation's website at www.flaccreditation.org. As part of the assessment, employees of the Florida Department of Transportation and the public are invited to offer comments to the assessment team by writing to:

Commission for Florida Law Enforcement Accreditation
P.O. Box 1489, Tallahassee, Florida 32302
Email: info@flaccreditation.org

The Commission for Florida Law Enforcement Accreditation's assessment team will consist of team leader Ms. Flora Tran, of the Florida Department of Children and Families, Office of Inspector General, and Inspector General Candie Fuller, of the Florida Department of Environmental Protection, Office of Inspector General. After the assessment team completes their review of the Florida Department of Transportation, Office of Inspector General-Investigations Section, they will report back to the full Commission for Florida Law Enforcement Accreditation, which will then decide if the Florida Department of Transportation Office of Inspector General-Investigations Section will retain their accredited status. Participation in the accreditation process is voluntary and, if granted, will be for a three-year period.
