The Office of the Chief Inspector General Seeks Re-Accreditation

The Florida Office of the Chief Inspector General will be undergoing an assessment by the Commission for Florida Law Enforcement Accreditation in an effort to attain re-accredited status. On December 13, 2017, the Office of the Chief Inspector General's Investigations Section will be assessed for compliance on policies and procedures, management, operations and practices. The Office of the Chief Inspector General has to comply with 39 mandatory standards in order to receive re-accredited status. A copy of the accreditation standards is available through the Commission for Florida Law Enforcement Accreditation's website at www.flaccreditation.org. As part of the assessment, employees of the Executive Office of the Governor and the public are invited to offer comments to the assessment team by writing to:

Commission for Florida Law Enforcement Accreditation
P.O. Box 1489, Tallahassee, Florida 32302
Email: info@flaccreditation.org

After the assessment team completes their review of the Office of the Chief Inspector General's Investigations Section, they will report back to the full Commission for Florida Law Enforcement Accreditation, which will then determine if the Office of the Chief Inspector General will be granted re-accredited status. Participation in the accreditation process is voluntary and, if granted, will be for a three-year period.
